RUSSIANS TURNED OUT

Leaves Kamranh Bay for Hainan Island

WHERE THEY WILL COAL

Hawaii Is Considerably North of Position Just Occupied—Russia Assures France That Due Care Will Be Taken.

London, April 22.—A Paris despatch says it is announced that Admiral Rodjstvensky left Kamranh Bay today for the island of Hainan where the vessel will go to coal. Hainan is a large island north from Kamranh Bay, in the Gulf of Tonquin. It belongs to China and is close to the Chinese coast.

Reports from Saigon say that Admiral Dejeune of the French fleet visited the Russians while the fleet was lying in Kamranh Bay. They were short of provisions and French and German vessels were engaged in carrying supplies to them from Saigon.

Another report says that Admiral Nebotoff's fleet of seven battleships and cruisers is expected at Saigon daily.

MINUTE INSTRUCTIONS.

Russia Informs France That Neutrality Will Be Observed.

Paris, April 22.—It is stated in parliamentary circles that Russia has informed France that she will send Admiral Rodjstvensky minute instructions to respect rules of neutrality and to avoid doing anything that would give Japan the slightest pretext for picking a quarrel with France.

Russians Concentrating.

Tokio, April 22.—It is reported that the Russians are concentrating at Posiet Bay, near the northeast angle of Corea, in order to bar the advance of the Japanese toward Vladivostok.

WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION.

Etienne Says That Delcasse Has Withdrawn His Resignation.

Paris, April 22.—M. Etienne, minister of the interior, stated today that M. Delcasse, minister of foreign affairs, has withdrawn his resignation.

The motives leading up to M. Delcasse's sudden determination to retire from the cabinet, are primarily attributed to internal controversies over the Moroccan question; and this to some extent has been accentuated by similar controversies over French neutrality in the far East.

The Socialist criticisms directed against M. Delcasse, have been particularly vehement during recent days on the Moroccan question, and this appears to have finally decided M. Delcasse to surrender the question into other hands. It is felt that his retirement now would be hailed in Germany as a German triumph, and this is one of the main considerations leading M. Rouvier to earnestly appeal to M. Delcasse to remain in the foreign office.

Resigns as a Protest.

St. Petersburg, April 22.—One of the chiefs of the Siberian police has arrived here to present his resignation as a protest against the unjust measures adopted toward the people of Siberia.

IMPOSSIBLE.

Spanish Court Annals Will Which Shows Hostility to United States.

Madrid, April 22.—Supreme court has quashed the will of the late Cardinal Herero who died in 1903, bequeathing 50,000 pesetas to the first Spanish general who should land at the head of an invading army in America, to avenge Spain's loss of Cuba and the Philippines. The cardinal's relatives petitioned the court to have the will set aside. The court in granting the request says: "Though the will shows patriotism and laudable feelings, its provisions are politically and strategically unreasonable."

YESUVIUS SICK AGAIN.

Mountain Is Again Belching Forth Substances from Its Interior.

Naples, April 22.—Vesuvius is in eruption and tourists are flocking to witness the phenomenon. In case the volcano becomes violently active, Kaiser William has expressed a desire to return to witness the spectacle.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Arthur E. Appleyard Wanted for Wrecking Buffalo Bank.

Boston, April 22.—Judge Lowell in United States circuit court today denied the various contentions of counsel of Arthur E. Appleyard, wanted in Buffalo, where he is charged with wrecking the German bank. He accepted the appeal to the United States supreme court and admitted the defendant to bail in $15,000.

Panic in Stock Exchange.

Chicago, April 22.—The wheat market went to smash this morning amid a panic on the board of trade. May option dropped from one hundred ten, Thursday's closing, to one dollar. Will scenes were witnessed following the scramble of its longs to unload.

SENATOR PLATT DEAD.

Prominent Connecticut Man Died in Washington.

Washington, Conn., April 22.—United States Senator Orville Hitchcock Platt of Connecticut died at his summer home in this, his native town, at 8:55 o'clock last night from pneumonia. The end came almost unexpectedly. The immediate cause was the breaking of an abscess which had formed in the right lung and which produced strangulation.

Senator Platt, who was born July 19, 1827, was first elected to the Senate in 1879 to succeed Senator W. H. Bursum, a Democrat. His last re-election was in 1903. Senator Platt's connection with the upper house was marked by tireless industry and devotion to the interests of his state and country.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon in the Congregational church here. The service will be simple.

SOLDIER IS CHARGED.

Alleged That He Misappropriated Funds Placed With Him.

Burlington, April 22.—The first sergeant of Troop E, 15th cavalry, has been under arrest in his quarters for the past week, pending a trial by a general court martial. The charges are that he misappropriated some of the funds of his troop. The sergeant on last pay day called before him several of the men in the troop who were heavily indebted to the government and other parties, and who owed large pool bills and informed them that if they paid him a certain part of the bill he would fix it so that they would not be reprimanded by the troop commander. The men did this and the sergeant, it is claimed, failed to turn the money over to his troop commander. The sergeant has been a most capable soldier, but last December while riding his horse in Winooski he was thrown and sustained severe injuries to his head. He was confined to the hospital for a long time and since that time he has not been the same in mind. It is very doubtful whether he will receive severe punishment owing to his condition.

FOR NEW TRIAL.

Attorney Maloney to Start Movement for Mary Rogers.

Rutland, April 22.—T. W. Maloney said last night that the petition for a new trial in the Mary Rogers case, the woman tried and convicted of the murder of her husband at Bennington, will be filed within a few days. It was intended to file this petition with two judges of the Vermont Supreme Court at Brattleboro yesterday but the absence of one of them prevented this being done. When two of the judges can be got together the petition will be filed.

Mr. Maloney said that affidavits will be attached to the petition showing on what grounds the application for a new trial for Mrs. Rogers is asked, and that if these are considered sufficient the case will probably be retried at the May term of supreme court. Should the judges decide that the affidavits are not sufficient and that testimony will need to be taken, it will be necessary for them to grant a stay of execution so that the new trial may come at the next following term of court.

GETS HUSTLING MANAGER.

Rutland Team Will Have J. H. Callahan of Fair Haven.

Rutland, April 22.—J. H. Callahan of Fair Haven was engaged as manager of Rutland's base ball team for the coming season at a meeting of the managing board held yesterday afternoon. He left on the 6:15 o'clock train this evening to visit and look players with whom the directors have corresponded.

Mr. Callahan has managed Fair Haven's team for about eight seasons and with great success.

The Rutland team this year will be mostly new men, as several of last year's players have signed elsewhere. It is probable that most of them will be college men. Mr. Callahan was chosen from among a host of applicants for the position.

Mrs. Lewis Fish of Randolph was stricken a week ago Friday morning with a shock, the third which she had suffered, and Sunday became unable to take either nourishment or medicine. She was found lying in the back hall at Judson Pitts', where she and her husband have been living lately. Mrs. Fish being Mr. Fish's daughter. Failing gradually, she lingered until Thursday morning, when she breathed her last at 7:15 o'clock. The funeral was held from Mr. Pitts' this afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating.

DAMAGES OF $3,450

Terrance McKane Gets Verdict Over Marr & Gordon.

DECISION GIVEN TODAY

Jury Had the Case 41 Hours — This Is the Third Trial and It May Go Up to Supreme Court Again.

After coming in once in the morning for further information, the jury in the Washington county case of Terrance McKane vs. Marr & Gordon, of Barre, went back and wrestled with the case until four o'clock yesterday afternoon, when they reported that their opinions were contrivance and that they couldn't get together. Judge Munson refused to release them and ordered them back for further deliberation.

There is no present prospect of getting through with the jury trials before supreme court convenes May 9. Judge Munson has denied the request of some members of the bar that the assistant judges sit during supreme court recess and hear divorce and other minor cases. If supreme court should last three weeks as it now seems probable it will, that will consume nearly all the time until Judge Munson has to go to Caledonia county court in June.

A verdict was returned this morning, after the jury had had the case for 41 hours. It is for the plaintiff to recover $3,450 damages and costs. The jury did not separate after reaching a decision but remained until the verdict was given. The costs in the case were very heavy.

This was the third trial. The first resulted in a disagreement, the second in a verdict of $5,229.16 for the plaintiff with costs. Whether the case will go to supreme court or not is not known at this time. R. A. Hoar and M. M. Gordon appeared for the plaintiff, and W. A. Lord and Senter & Senter for the defendant.

The case is one of the best known on the county court calendar for some time. Terrance McKane was employed on Marr & Gordon's quarry and was injured after a blast.

The words of the ending chorus follow:

"Now the earth in resurrection light Stands serene and fair in beauty bright; Lo! from out the bondage of the tomb Christ has risen, vanquishing the gloom."

E'en the simple lilies of the field Joyously their fragrant incense yield. Fairly harkells silvery music make, And songs of birds the streams awake. Soft the air the breezes breathe of spring;

Lowly hedges, gaily blossoming, Life their flower-petals to the sky And rejoice in glorious victory.

Jesus Christ, the Life, the Truth, the Way,

From the power of death hath risen today.

Sing ye praise, for unto you is given Entrance through the shining gates of Heaven. Amen."

GIVEN EASTER SOCIAL.

Young Misses Sewing Class Entertained This Afternoon.

The children's sewing class which meets every Saturday afternoon in the Emergency room in the city building, under charge of the Clive Federation, were given an Easter social this afternoon after they had finished their sewing. Music was furnished from a phonograph and Miss Allie Trow recited selections for the little folks enjoyment. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and oranges were served.

The sewing class which has been held every Saturday since Christmas has about sixty members and they show the keenest interest in the work. They are divided into three classes, one class in patch work and two in pillow case sewing. As they get to doing good work they are given aprons to sew and the parents of many of the children buy the aprons after they are finished.

It is a most interesting sight to see the room full of little girls working as busy as bees and they take great pride in doing their work well. The ladies who have charge of the school are Mrs. E. M. Tynitor, Mrs. F. T. Cutler, Mrs. C. H. White, Mrs. Henry Powers and Mrs. W. H. Hoisington. The ladies would be glad of contributions or cast-off garments from anyone to use in their work.

J. Deavitt, for $2,700. It is said that when Dewey liked the Spaniards the owner of the house was offered $10,000 for it.

HE WANTS TO KNOW.

Editor Times—I would like to inquire through your columns what has become of the city road machines? Are they ruined, or is the city going to wait till fall before it puts them on our streets. I would also like to inquire when the Gas Company is going to fill the numerous pitfalls it left in our streets and sidewalks when it laid its pipes last fall.

TAX PAYER.

Amateur Base Ball.

The Washington street Juniors defeated the East street base ball nine this forenoon by the score of 12 to 5. The batteries were: Juniors, H. Wishart and Whiteford. For East street, Cutler and Ahera.

GAS MONOPOLY PROVED.

New York Inquiry Is Proving Successful.

New York, April 22.—The investigation of the gas and electric light business is making steady progress. Former legislative inquiries conducted in this city have produced more public excitement, but it is doubtful if a single one of them has promised more beneficial results at a corresponding stage. It is known that Mr. Hughes was not the committee's first choice, but it is due to him to say that his final selection was fortunate. With little opportunity for special preparation he has shown a remarkable grasp of his subject, and has succeeded in eliciting from reluctant witnesses a multitude of highly interesting facts. It is worth noting, moreover, that the investigation has been conducted quietly, courteously and without any effort at "playing to the galleries."

It has been shown that the lighting business is an absolute monopoly; that handsome dividends have been paid on a large overcapitalization; that the price charged for gas and electric light is far in excess of the cost of production and distribution, and that in some parts of the city, at least, gas is supplied at such a pressure as greatly to increase the cost of a given amount of light. It is safe to say that these things have been proved.

FRICION AT HEARING

Race Issue Over Liquor Licenses In Montpelier.

FIERY TALK WAS HEARD

C. H. Senter Objected to Giving Privilege of Selling Liquor Except to Americans — D. Tomasi Replied in Heat.

Heat generated through the raising of race issue warmed the room where the Montpelier license commissioners met last evening to hear objections to the granting of liquor licenses for the coming year. And the heat grew in intensity as Chairman Henry Holt had to shut off the valves. Attorney Clarence H. Senter, son of John Senter, and Dominio Tomasi, rubbing together, caused the sparks to fly. Young Senter thought the licenses ought to be granted to Americans, at the same time opposing Serafino Massucco's application on the ground that Massucco had conducted his place this year in a disgraceful manner. Tomasi, who is an Italian, hadn't anything to say about Serafino's side of the case but he did object strenuously in drawing the race line in giving out licenses. Tomasi is an applicant.

Senter said he appeared as a private citizen and not representing anyone else. Massucco, whose place of business is opposite the former's office, had the speaker said, demonstrated that he was not a fit person to have a license, and secondly he believed that the privilege of selling should be restricted to Americans. He spoke of a case where an old man went into Massucco's place while under the influence of liquor and claimed that he was sold more, after which, too drunk to navigate, the old man was piled into the street.

Then came Tomasi's fiery reply to the statement that none but Americans should be granted licenses. The reply became so vehement that the chairman called the speaker to order.

The chairman just before the board retired into the privy chamber for consultation announced that as the board interpreted the law the licenses must be given in a way that the public would be best accommodated and that the board would not be warped in judgment on account of the man's name or nationality. He further stated that the successful ones would be informed by mail, and that the public would know through the press.

There was one other objection, that to the application of J. J. Glinney for a first class license in the Laird block. The objector was a former chairman of the license commissioners, W. T. Dewey. He represented the wife of the owner of the French block, and F. A. Sherburne, a grocer in the same building, which is next to the Laird block. Mr. Dewey also objected to all license granting within 400 feet of the French block, the upper stories of which are occupied as dwellings.

Agreed But Wouldn't Tell.

St. Albans, April 22.—Stephen E. Royce, John W. Ryan and Charles E. Marchessault, the license commissioners, met last evening at the city hall for the purpose of granting the liquor licenses. There were 12 applications and six licenses were given, but the commissioners would not give out the names of those granted licenses, saying they would not be announced until tonight.
